

ISBN: 9781912863624

December 2020

Category: Children's Fiction

Paperback, 216mm x 140mm

168 pages, £8.99

The Fire Children

ABIGAIL VAN KRAAY

- The thought of living in a black-and-white world forever, made Benji Brook and Flo Knightly feel as hollow as the trunk of their favourite tree. It seemed to them, that since the colour had gone, the joy had left the people of Kingswick.
- But like Grandpa Jo had always said, 'There's more to life than what meets the eye.' With their so-called arch enemy, Ozzy Stone, they are thrust into a world between worlds, as they go on the wildest of adventures and come face to face with the shadow beasts of Battlelands.
- Could it be that this unlikely trio could not only save the stolen children, but restore colour to their black and white world?

AUTHOR BIO

Abigail van Kraay is an author, full-time mum and former high school teacher of English with a Masters in Creative Writing from Manchester Metropolitan University. Abigail is a storyteller, poet, blogger and she loves a good movie. Her passion is to write and be inspired by her travels around the world and exploring the great outdoors with her children. Abigail lives in Wesham, England with her husband Theo and her two sons Noah and Joseph.

ENDORSEMENTS

'If you feel like all the colour's gone out of your life, I can't think of a better story to bring it back. The Fire Children is a riveting tale of three young friends, Benji, Flo and Ozzy, whose courage leads to the transformation of their black-and-white world. A gripping yarn for Middle Grade readers.'

Mark Stibbe, award-winning novelist and CEO of The Book Lab