

Goodbye Jessica

DANNY SMITH

- For Danny Smith, the shock of losing his beloved daughter Jessica was like an earthquake in his heart and life. She was just 22 years old.
- He took a journey into the past to pay tribute to Jessica. This book was written to tell people of her adventures and achievements, her struggles, and her pain – her life. To tell all who pass this way what an amazing person she was, how he loved her, and how he misses her.
- Goodbye Jessica is the raw authentic voice of a father's grief. But it also speaks to the discovery of healing and the relevance of faith, after a heartbreak that will never mend.

AUTHOR BIO

Danny Smith and his wife Joan live in Surrey, England. They have three children: Rachel, Luke and Jessica (who passed away in 2007), and three grandchildren: Lily, Seth and Eden. Danny, an Anglo-Indian, is co-founder, with Lord Alton, of Jubilee Campaign, a human rights charity, with UN consultative status. He worked with Billy Connolly to launch Tickety-Boo Tea, a charity project, and helped to establish the Romanian Angel Appeal, a charity he served as trustee.

ISBN: 9781912863631

December 2020

Category: Biography

Paperback, 216mm x 140mm

196 pages, £9.99

malcolm down
PUBLISHING