ABOUT THE BOOK

After spending twenty years of his life as a drug addict and alcoholic in Dublin, Ireland, in a hopeless downward spiral of despair, John experienced an incredible encounter with God that transformed his life. Although his recovery from addiction took three years after his conversion to Christ, he has now been sober and drug free for over twenty-three years.

John has set up several Christian rehabilitation centres, homeless outreach and feeding centres. He is married, step-father and grandfather who's ministry includes everyone from millionaires, business people and street folk.

BIO

He is happily married, a stepfather and grandfather and lives in Bradford, England.

ENDORSEMENTS

'What makes John unusual is that he has realised his freedom was not just about him, but about many others too.'

Paul Scanlon, Former Senior Pastor, Life Church, Bradford

'I'm thrilled that John has written this so that others can enjoy, with laughter and tears, the experiences which have made him what he is today.'

Moya Brennan, Lead Singer, Clannad
