

Behind Closed Doors

HENRY TURNBULL

- Pornography and masturbation. These two words are uncomfortable even to say. Just thinking about those two words can make you feel awkward. Unfortunately, the lack of conversation about these words has allowed for millions of people to find themselves addicted to them. And being a Christian does not exclude us from that possibility.
- Henry Turnbull has written Behind Closed Doors for you. A Christian who's still in school or stepping into adult life and you find yourself addicted to pornography and masturbation. You want to get out of this mess you've found yourself in, but you're blind to know where to begin or how to end it.
- In this book you'll find encouragement and a sense that you're not alone in this. It's a raw and honest book full of ideas, action steps and advice that may help you.

AUTHOR BIO

Henry Turnbull is from Hertfordshire, England, and has a degree in Theology. He's passionate about speaking with youth about the topic of the book and using his own life journey to impact others.

ENDORSEMENTS

'Behind Closed Doors is a brilliant interactive resource not only for young people to read themselves, but also as a framework to create easy and safe conversations in one-to-one mentoring and small groups.'
