

ISBN: 9781912863570

July 2020

Category: Biography

Paperback, 216mm x 140mm

128 pages, £9.99

Returning the Lost Smiles

AMAR TIMALSINA AND RALPH TURNER

From a small boy who wanted to end his life, through to a man who knows his Saviour and wants to change the world. From a village in the back of beyond through to speaking at the United Nations. From stigma and suicide attempts through to healing and salvation. This is a story that will return smiles and raise hope.

AUTHOR BIO

Amar Bahadur Timalisina is President of IDEA Nepal and on their International Board serving as Vice-chair and President for International Relations. He is a member of The Leprosy Mission International Board and part of the Central Board of the Private Schools Association of Nepal. He is also a member of the Advisory Board of ILEP - the International Federation of Anti-Leprosy Associations. Amar, alongside his wife Mim, runs the Amardeep High School, Kathmandu. Amar and Mim have two adult children and live in Kathmandu, Nepal.

Ralph Turner is an author, blogger, preacher and teacher. He lives in Leicester and is Team Pastor for Mission24 (www.mission24.co.uk). Ralph is married to Roh and they have four adult children. You can find out more at <http://mountain50.blogspot.co.uk/>

ENDORSEMENTS

'With God's help, one man can change the world, and that man is Amar.'

Pam Rhodes, Presenter, Songs of Praise

'Be ready to laugh and to cry, to be encouraged and inspired!'

Brent Morgan, International Director, The Leprosy Mission International

'Great reading for those who seek inspiration in role models of mental strength, solid faith, and leadership.'

Jan Van Berkel, ILEP President

'From the depths of despair in being diagnosed with leprosy to being an international speaker ... may his story'

Brent Morgan, International Director, The Leprosy Mission International

malcolm down
PUBLISHING