

ISBN: 9781912863105

February 2019

Category: BIOGRAPHY & AUTOBIOGRAPHY / Religious

Paperback, 216mm x 140mm

192 pages, £8.99

Out of the shadows

ALISON BUTTENS HAW

- This is the triumphant and powerful true story of one woman who has chosen to forgive.
- At the age of ten, Alison witnessed the brutal attack on her parents that left her father dead and her mother with multiple stab wounds. Prior to the attack, Alison was also robbed of her innocence through sexual abuse.
- This story is for anyone struggling to overcome the adversities of life and provides practical lessons that will help you walk 'Out Of The Shadows' and into a future where dreams can come true.

AUTHOR BIO

Alison Buttenshaw is an articulate, salt-of-the-earth communicator whose passion for helping others instills hope into the heart of every listener. Ali regularly shares her powerful story of forgiveness and courage at events, conferences and retreats. In addition to this, Ali is a qualified life coach helping individuals journey towards achieving their goals and dreams, stay on track and achieve success and happiness. She is happily married to Ross and they are the proud parents to Kealy and Curtis.

ENDORSEMENTS

'I have heard many shocking life stories in my years as both a Pastor and a confident - but none as moving and compelling as Allison's. Out of the Shadows reveals a woman of great courage and honesty and demonstrates the power of forgiveness. I am delighted to endorse this stunning book.'

Chris Pringle, Executive Pastor of C3 Church, Australia

'I've never heard a more gripping or horrifying story than what Alison has endured, and the fact that she can sing God's praises in spite of all that's happened in her life is a stunning testimony to God's healing power and grace. Readers will not be able to put this book down, but also not be able to deny that we serve a God who is far above any of our circumstances in life, and stands eager to give us beauty of ashes.'

Shannon Ethridge, M.A. Certified Life Coach, International Speaker & Best-selling Author of the *Every Woman's Battle Series

Sarah
GRACE
PUBLISHING