

ISBN: 9781912863150

December 2019

Category: Biography

Paperback, 216mm x 140mm

272 pages, £14.99

John the Baptist

CHARLES CROLL

- Was John the Baptist among the greatest people who ever lived? And if he was, what does that mean for disciples of Jesus? John the Baptist was Jesus' relative, lifelong friend and closest collaborator, of whom he said that there is no one greater in human history.
- Charles Croll's Biography of John the Baptist, gives an unique and fresh insight into the Trinity: John set the scene for the revelation of the Trinity to the world, and the work of the Holy Spirit in a believer's life: John was the Prophet of Pentecost. It is a book that looks at the man and his background as well as his message.
- John the Baptist: A Biography, sets out in an accessible yet rigorous way the life and teaching of John especially the way he interacted with Jesus and the influence he continued to have on the early church.

AUTHOR BIO

Revd Charles Croll is the minister of Southwold United Reformed Church in England. Charles has two theological degrees and also studied at Westminster College, Cambridge before his ordination. He has been researching John the Baptist for the best part of twenty years which has included two sabbaticals.

ENDORSEMENTS

'Whether from an historical or a spiritual standpoint this is a fascinating, scholarly, very inspiring account of the life and legacy of Jesus' cousin - the one he called the greatest man in the world. I couldn't put it down and could not recommend it more.'

Sandy Millar, Former vicar of Holy Trinity Brompton, Honorary Assistant Bishop in London

malcolm down
PUBLISHING