

If God is so good,
why do I always seem to be broke?

Paul Plageron

If God is so good, why do I always seem to be broke?

PAUL PLAGERSON

- Have you ever wondered why you seem to be struggling financially and why whatever money you make never seems to be enough? This book is an attempt to look at wealth from a balanced scriptural perspective. Paul Plageron's purpose is to help you identify and remove some blockages on the road to true prosperity.

AUTHOR BIO

Paul Plageron is a financial counsellor, teacher and mentor who has brought hope, encouragement and guidance to many. Amongst those he has worked with are students, church and business leaders and he is passionate to see people walk in the abundance that their Heavenly Father has for them to enjoy. Paul lives in Bedford, UK with his wife Anne and is a part of the leadership at Kings Arms church.

ENDORSEMENTS

'Short, life changing, and profound. What more could you want? Biblical, pastoral and practical too. Paul Plageron has written an important book that is a must-read for anyone who has tried to navigate well intentioned but contradictory church teaching on money.'

Chris Bullivant, Writer and Political Commentator

'This money book is provocative, challenging and full of wisdom. Paul wants us to foster an expectation of prosperity so that we can also be generous. This book will make you think, pray and then get out your calculator!'

Rob Davey, Senior Pastor, Jubilee Church, Solihull

'Few books deal so directly with money and even fewer give understanding to the spiritual, emotional and mental underpinnings of our finances. Paul does both things brilliantly in this book. Read it, apply it and be transformed by it.'

Simon Holley, Senior Leader, King's Arms Church and Catalyst Team Leader
